

December

Butler County Family Forum

Navigating the Special Education System

Hot Topic for December 6th:

What is “documentation” and why do we need it?

(Learn other updates from the Department of Education.)

The Family Forum is a presentation and networking opportunity for parents and family members of a child with a disability. The disability interferes with learning and may include an Individualized Education Program (IEP), a 504 Plan or a Services Plan.

Where:

Janet Clemmons Conference Center
282 North Fair Avenue
Hamilton (eastside) OH

When:

Tuesday, December 6th
From: 7 pm till 8:30 pm
(1st Tuesday each month)

Directions: From Butler County Highway/Michael Fox Highway (Ohio 129): Go north on Fair Avenue, then turn right at the CSB/Juvenile Center sign. Go all the way back to the last parking area. Use Conference entry on left, when you face the Center. There will be signs to the Family Forum meeting!

Sponsored by: Southwestern Ohio Special Education Regional Resource Center

Questions?? Contact Sue Bitsko (513) 563-0045 ext. 30 or www.swoserrc.org

In the case of severe weather, call 563-0045 for any cancellation information!

Watch for information about the SUMMER ADVENTURES EXPO coming soon!